RESOLUTION NO. 9335

WHEREAS, on December 7, 2011, the Commission on Elections promulgated Resolution No. 9313 providing for the "Rules and Regulations on the: (1) Bearing, Carrying or Transporting of Firearms or Other Deadly Weapons; and (2) Employment, Availment or Engagement of the Services of Security Personnel or Bodyguards in connection with the February 04, 2012 Special Elections for member, House of Representatives, in the Second Legislative District of the Province of Zambales.";

WHEREAS, Section 3¹ of Resolution No. 9313 provided for the "[s]tatus of authority to bear, carry or transport firearms issued pursuant to Resolution No. 8714, dated December 16, 2009, Resolution No. 9028, dated 20 September 2010, and other Resolutions issued in implementation thereof", without specifying the rules and regulations on the transport of explosives and/or its components parts by: (1) those engaged in the manufacture, importation, exportation, purchase and sale of explosives and/or its components; and (2) those engaged in the transportation of explosives and/or its components.

NOW WHEREFORE, by virtue of the powers vested in it by the Constitution, the Omnibus Election Code and other election laws, the Commission on Elections has resolved to clarify that the transport of explosives and/or its components by: (1) those engaged in the manufacture, importation, exportation, purchase and sale of explosives and/or its components; or (2) those involving the transportation of explosives and/or its components, may be authorized by the Director General of the Philippine National Police (PNP) through a validly issued permit, and giving prior notice to the Commission by having the original of said permit stamped "approved" by the Regional Joint Security Control Center (RJSCC) for Region III and submitting a certified true copy thereof.

The explosives and/or its components must be immediately transported to the Firearms and Explosives Division (FED), Civil Security Group (CSG), PNP, or to the intended place of destination, employment and/or utilization, as authorized by the FED, CSG, PNP, as the case may be.

The RJSCC for Region III shall periodically submit to the Committee on the Ban on Firearms and Security Personnel (CBFSP) a report on the authorities it issued in connection with the transport of explosives and/or its components parts by: (1) those engaged in the manufacture, importation, exportation, purchase and sale of explosives and/or its components; and (2) those engaged in the transportation of explosives and/or its components.

Let the Education and Information Department of the Commission furnish copies thereof to the CBFSP, the RJSCC for Region III, the PNP and all concerned.

SO ORDERED.
